PHILOSOPHY

In Minneapolis we celebrate the best of summer with our Aquatennial festival. The fireworks roar, the picnic blankets unfold and we're ready to soak up the fresh air, sunshine and enjoy all those lakes. This style makes you feel just as good as a cozy summer day, with its pops of color and the light airy crystal embedded in the tortoise patterns. Soak in the fresh air of style and the fun feeling you get wearing this looker. The shape that flatters with its subtle upsweeps and angles is an extra treat. There is no better day than today when your face beams the Aquatennial.

MINNESOTA LINGO

The name Minneapolis comes from the Lakota word "minne" which means "water," and the Greek word "polis" which means "city." The Water City or City of Lakes takes time to celebrate all things water every year during the third week of July. This tradition began in 1940 and includes a much-loved parade and one of the largest fireworks displays in the USA.
