Philosophy:

Article One has teamed up with César Villalba, a creative designer and elite triathlete, to debut performance sunglasses crafted to counter traditional styles of eyewear in competitive fields. With flames emblazoned along the sides and a youthful, rectangular shape, the Article One x César Villalba frames rebuff the repetitive shapes and colors of technical frames that athletes are accustomed to. Distinct details and bespoke hues are inspired by Villalba's relentless energy towards his passions – racing and creative directing for global fashion brands.
